REFLECT:

- As we are approaching Thanksgiving this week, what are somethings you are most thankful for?
- Divorce is a difficult topic to talk about and discuss and it effects everyone. How has divorce affected you personally?
- Daniel talked about how to be married means to be on mission with another person for Christ? How do you respond to that? Do you agree or disagree?
- Daniel mentioned that your view of God is going to directly impact your view of marriage. What is your view of God? How is that impacting your view on marriage?
- In a transparent moment, how have you viewed your marriage or your future marriage more as a contract than a covenant? What changes need to be made in heart and/or action be more like a covenant?
- In tangible terms...how can your marriage or your future marriage be a vision to the world (people around you) to the love and commitment Jesus has to His people?
